

Cuba Night at The Palace: We were the first to celebrate.

Earlier this summer, we picked Cuba as one of our theme nights when we celebrate another country's culture. And Miami's Cuban heritage made this one a popular pick. Ironically our celebration of "Cuban Independence Day", with an evening of authentic food and music, was followed just a few weeks later by President Obama's official relink of USA-Cuba relations. Who knew?